WEEK OF THE YOUNG CHILD (ELEMENTARY SCHOOL)

NAEYC's Week of the Young Child® celebration is an annual event celebrating early learning, young children, their teachers, and families through themed activities on each day of the week, and Hardyston Elementary School will be joining in the fun this year. Check out our list of activities below...

Hardyston Elementary School Celebrates The Week of the Young Child!

April 2nd: Kickoff this SUNDAY (today) at Hardyston Elementary School!
Join us at 2PM. We will gather at the school playground to celebrate the start of the week. There will be an official proclamation read as well as refreshments and fun goodies. |

April 3rd: Music Monday! Each class will create a musical instrument out of recycled materials.

April 4th: Tasty Tuesday! Each class will create a digital or physical collage of their favorite foods and share what foods they love.

April 5th: Work Together Wednesday! Some students will work together to create a Lego structure of a place in Hardyston.

April 6th: Artsy Thursday! Each grade will go to the gym and add their handprint and name to a schoolwide painting.

April 7th: Family Friday! We don't have school on this day, but each student can take or draw pictures of what they did on their day off and share them when we get back from break.

BEE ACTIVE CLUB - GRADES 3 AND 4
